The Mace

The mace carried by the University Marshal is the gift of Sigma Sigma. From the fourteenth century on, the ceremonial mace was used by civil and ecclesiastical authorities. Today, carried as an emblem of authority and prestige, it is commonly used to indicate the official opening of ceremonies.

Conferring of Honorary Degree

Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs

ROBERT M. O'NEIL

will present the candidate,

who will be hooded by

Executive Vice President RALPH C. BURSIEK

DOCTOR OF LAWS (LL.D.)

SAM J. ERVIN, JR.

CITATION

SAM J. ERVIN, JUNIOR, whose native North Carolina wit and wisdom have spiced and enhanced a nation's appetite for the orderly processes of the law.

A United States Senator of significance since 1954, his name became a by-word and his features became universally known and recognized during the months of investigation into high federal government management and operations by the Select Committee of the Senate which he chaired. His probing questions and his strong reliance and insistence on the integrity of the law helped to elevate a Senate hearing into a national classroom for the examination of beliefs and philosophies about the American system of government. He has served as a state legislator in his native state, as a judge of Criminal and Superior Courts, as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives and as a Senator for twenty years. In this latter capacity, he has served as chairman of the Committee on Government Operations and on its subcommittees on Constitutional Rights, Separation of Powers and Revision of Codification of Laws. He has been a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in four presidential years. He served with distinction with the First Infantry Division in France during World War I, receiving the Purple Heart with Oak Leaf Clusters and the Silver Star among his numerous citations. He has been honored on numerous occasions by Universities, by his lifelong friends in Morgantown, North Carolina, by his church and by patriotic and political organizations. Retiring from the Senate in 1974 at the pinnacle of his career, he becomes a notable senior statesman on the American public scene.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the University of Cincinnati, I hereby gladly confer upon you, Sam J. Ervin, Jr., the Degree of Doctor of Law, honoris causa.

The George B. Barbour Award

Endowed by former students of Dean George B. Barbour to honor him as scientist, scholar, teacher, and, above all, as friend of his students; and to encourage future generations of faculty members to look upon teaching as a privilege and an honor, involving responsibility for close student relationships.

LINDA WHITE

Assistant Professor of English

The Mrs. A. B. (Dolly) Cohen Award

Established in 1961 by the late Mrs. A. B. Cohen, two awards have been presented each year to members of the faculty who have distinguished themselves by their excellence in teaching. The A. B. Dolly and Ralph Cohen Foundation has provided the awards again this year.

RICHARD F. DEMAR

Professor of Mathematics

LEONARD M. LANSKY

Professor of Psychology

Presentation of Commissions

Awarded at separate ceremonies on June 8, 1974

The Oath of Office given by
Col. Robert J. Jackson, U.S.A.
