PLANNING

Preparation of an Art Education Master's Project demonstrates the student's ability to develop, evaluate, and articulate critically a research project using arts-based inquiry methods. The Art Education Master's Project Committee consists of at least two full-time UC faculty members (at least one must be a full-time graduate faculty member in Art Education) who support the student's work. Once the MA ARTE committee has been formed and approved, the student should submit this signed document, and the Master's Project Development Plan to the School of Art Office at the conclusion of Year 1* of the ARTE graduate program (*no later than the last day of finals).
